SNOW, REMEMBER?

Foreword

MANY DAYS have passed since last September. All of the events of these past months of high school afford memories that will be recalled in future years.

THE STAFF hopes that the 1965-66 GROWLER will unfold the joys and tears of the year.

TO ALL who read this YEARBOOK it will be a lasting saga of "one of the most memorable years of our lives."

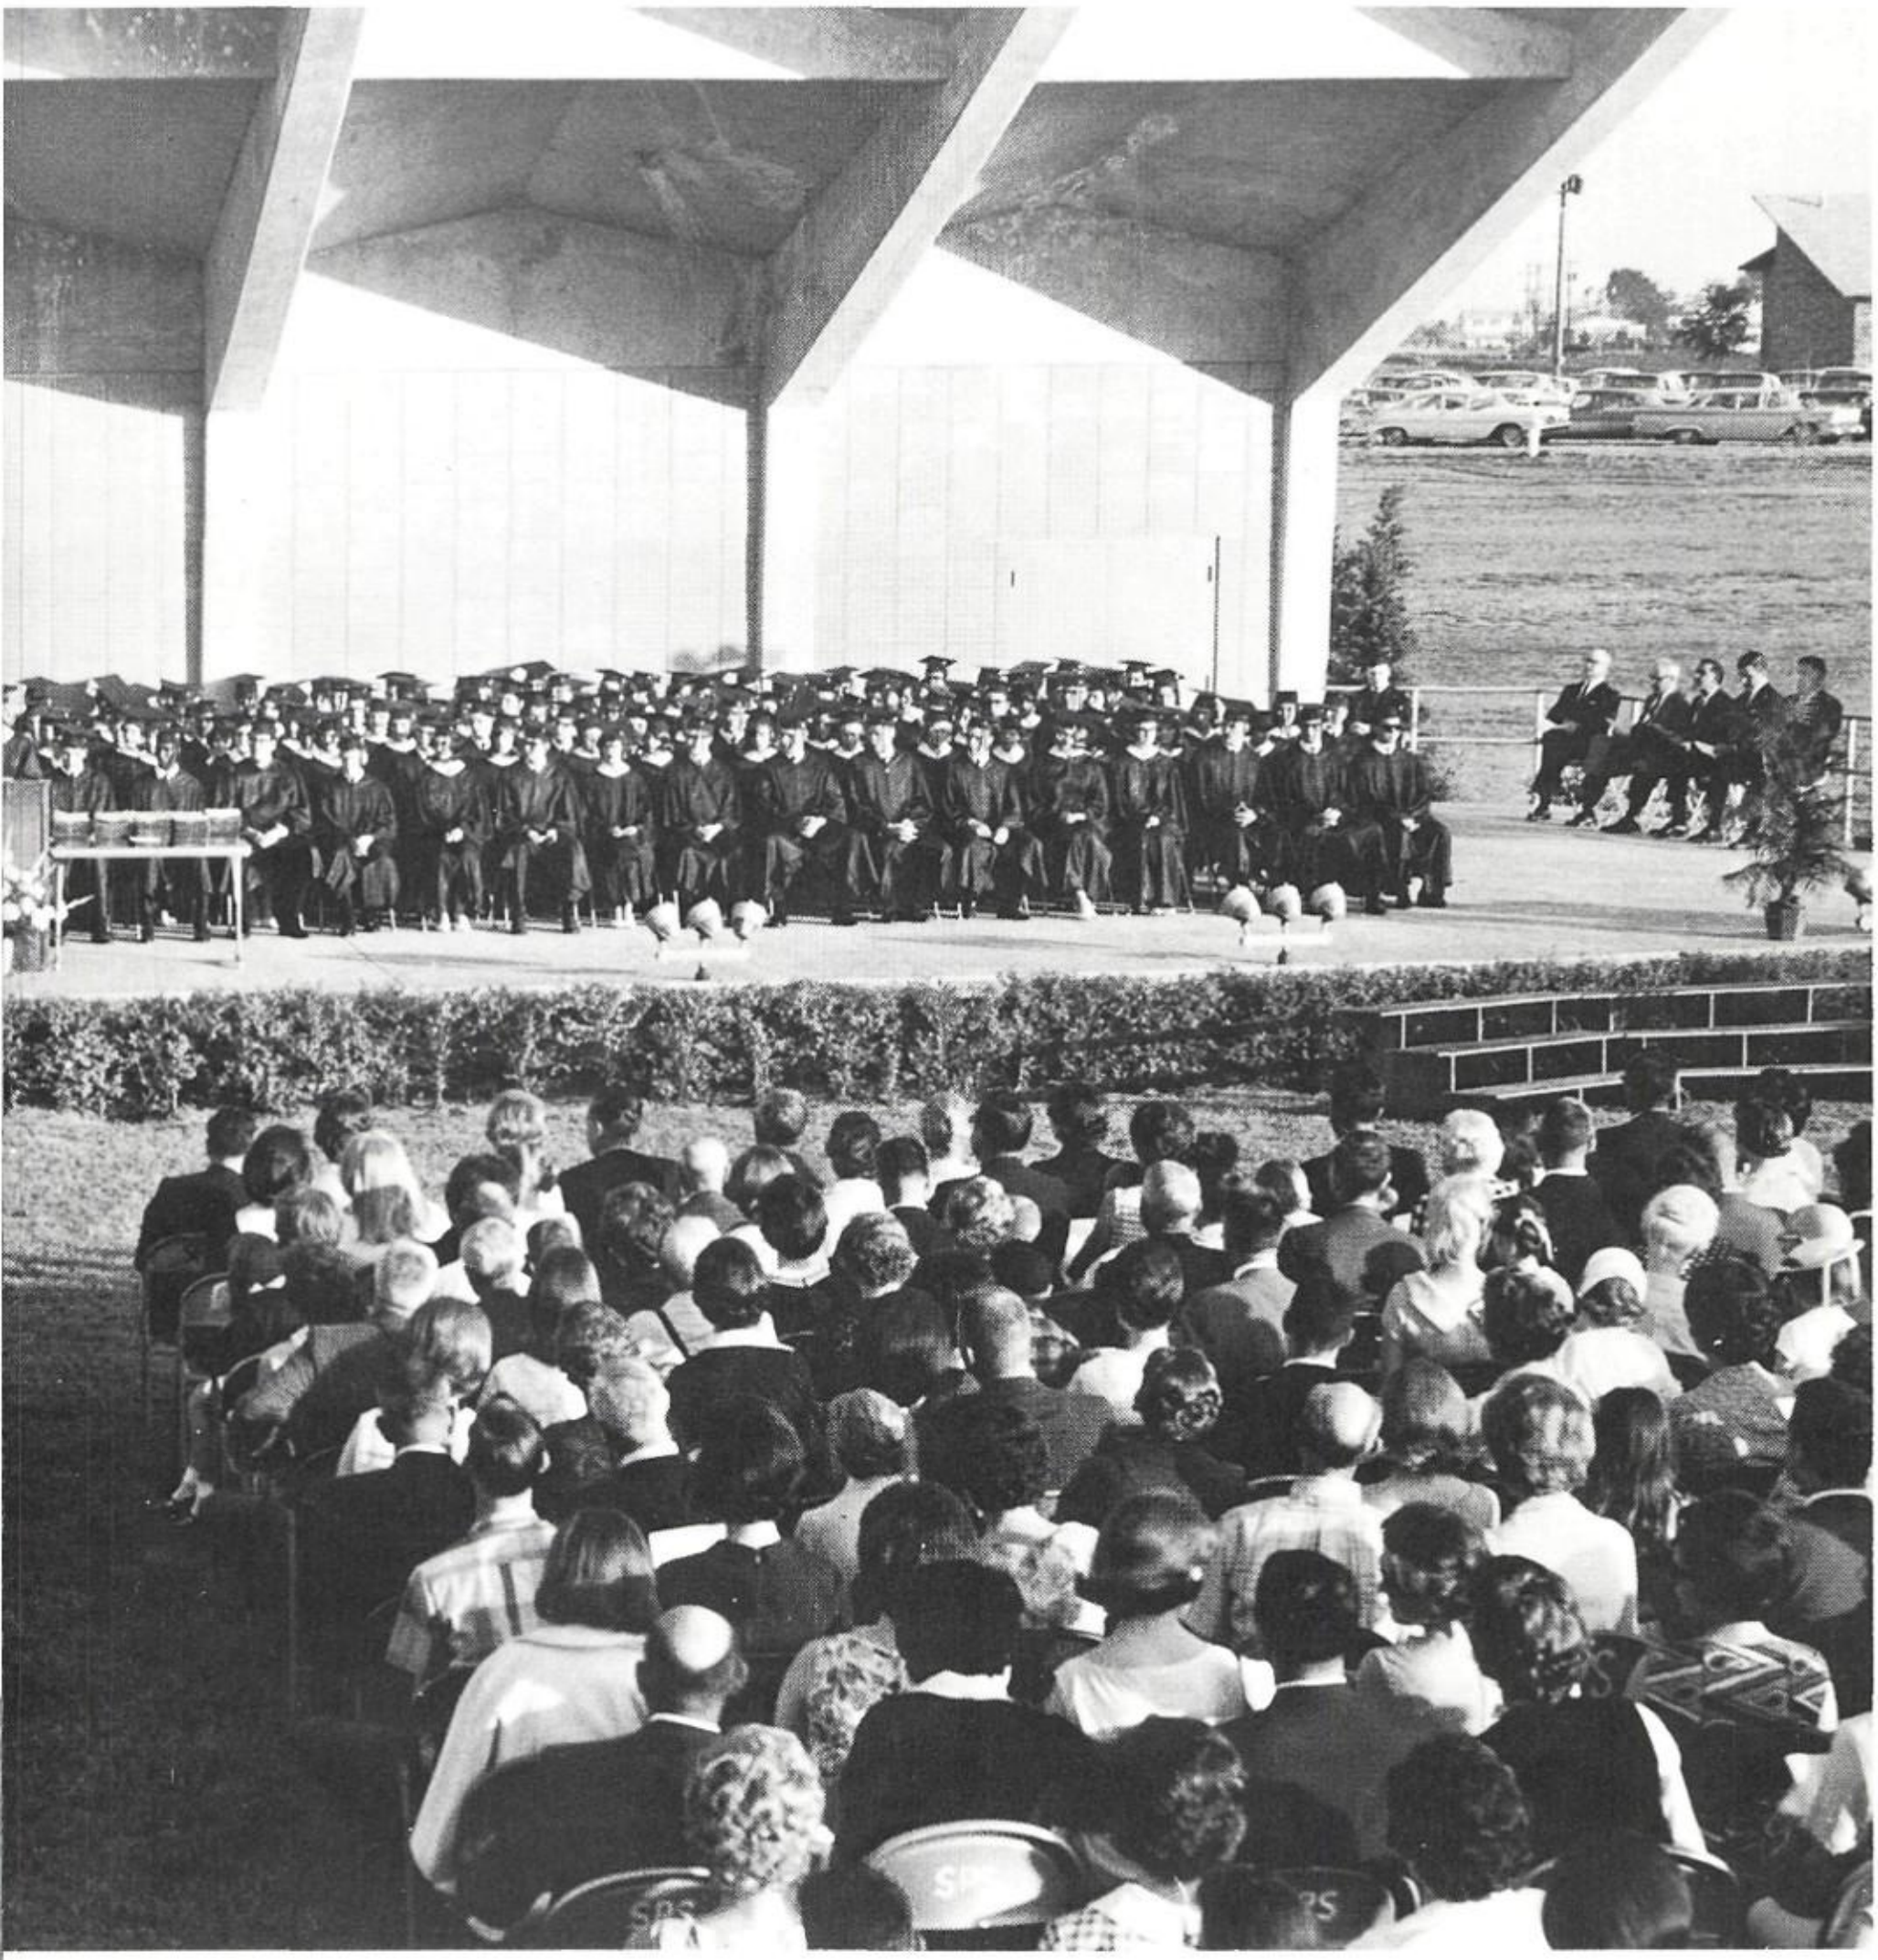
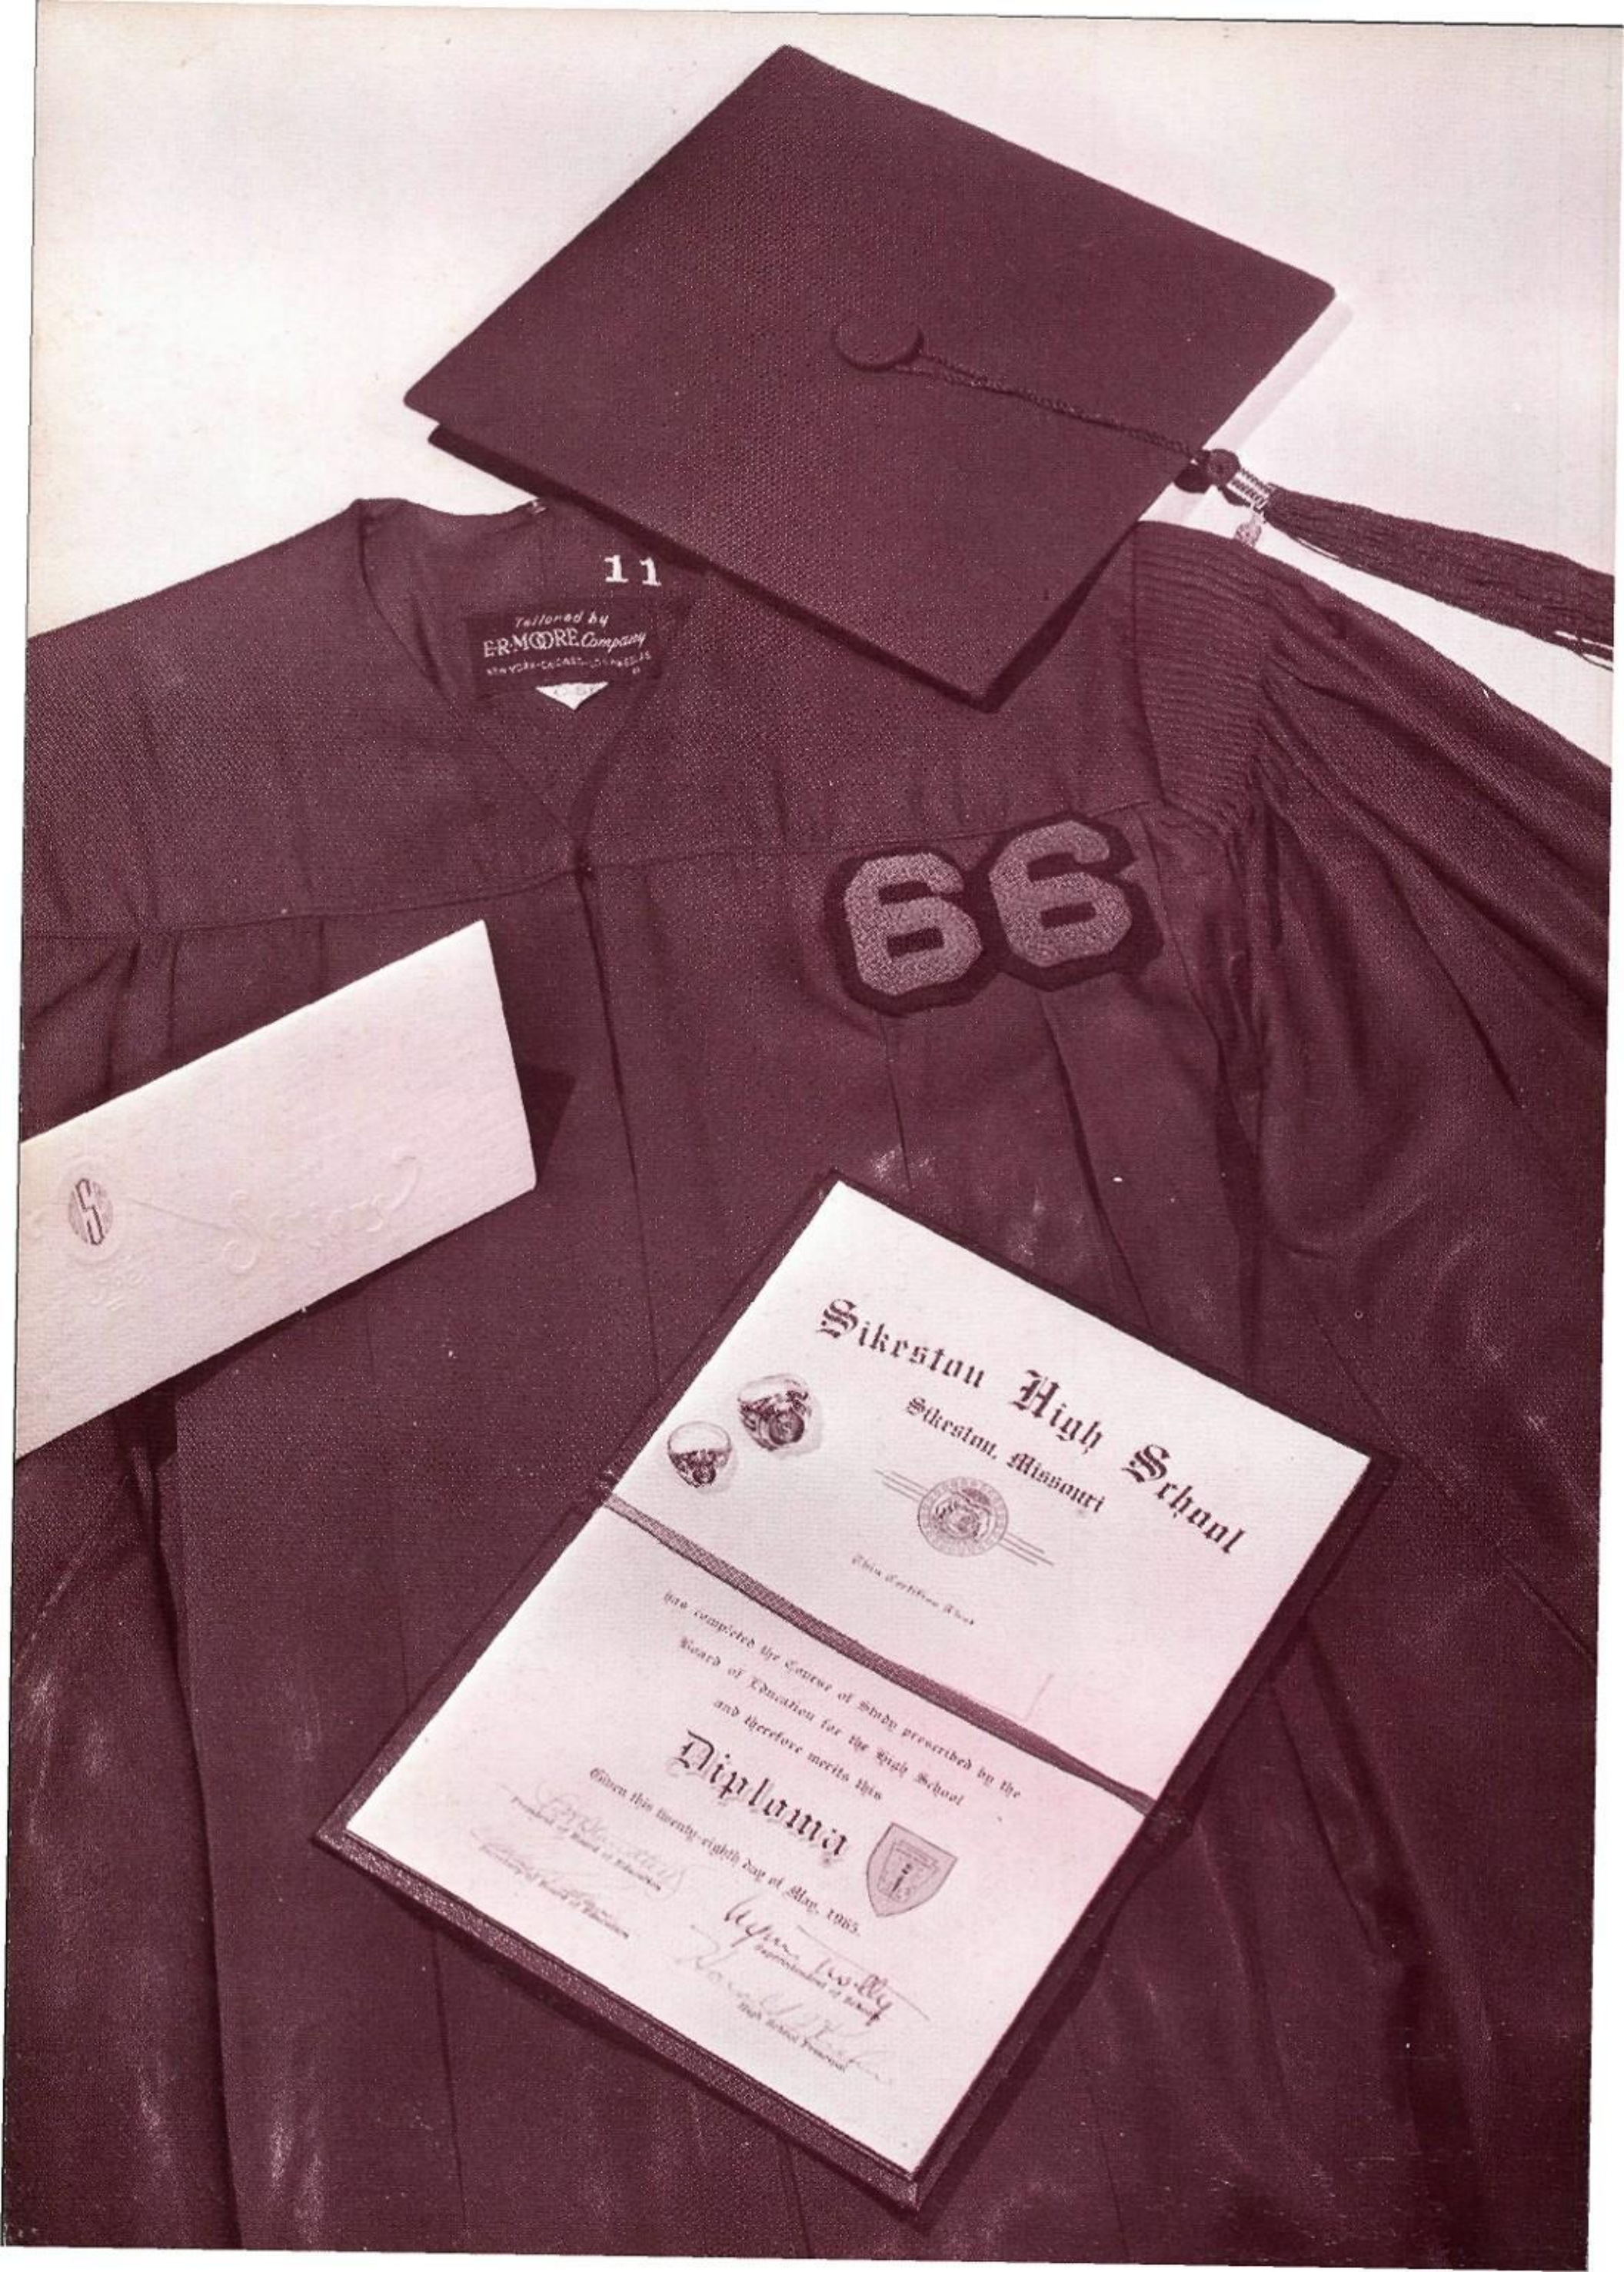
SOPHISTICATED SENIORS STUDY!





11
Tailored by
E.R. MOORE Company
66
Sikeston High School
Sikeston, Missouri
has completed the Course of Study prescribed by the Board of Education for the High School and therefore merits this Diploma
Given this twenty-eighth day of May, 1965.

ALMIGHTY
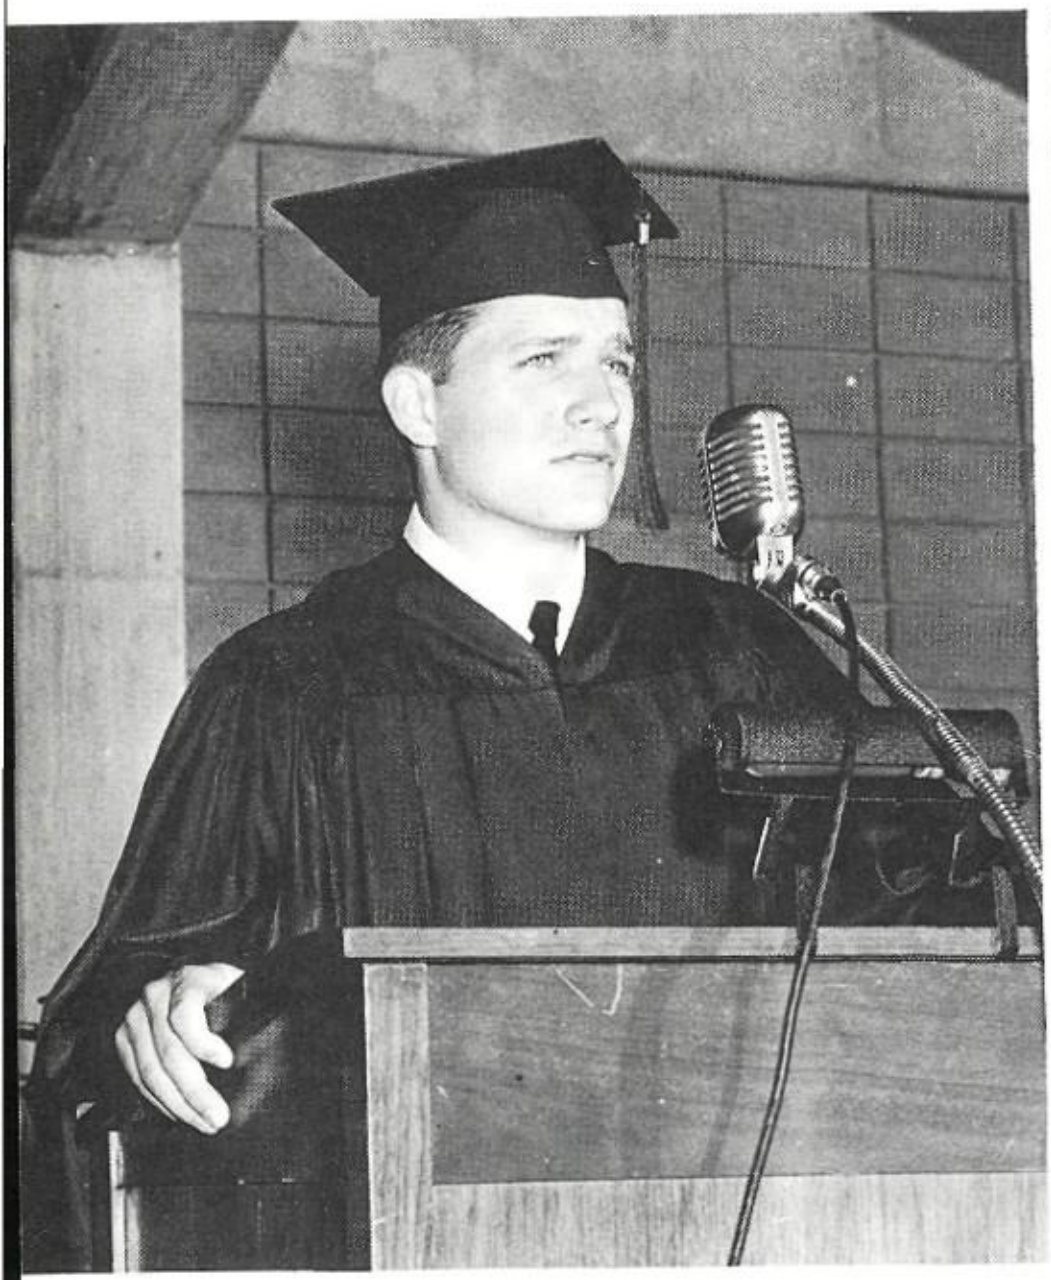
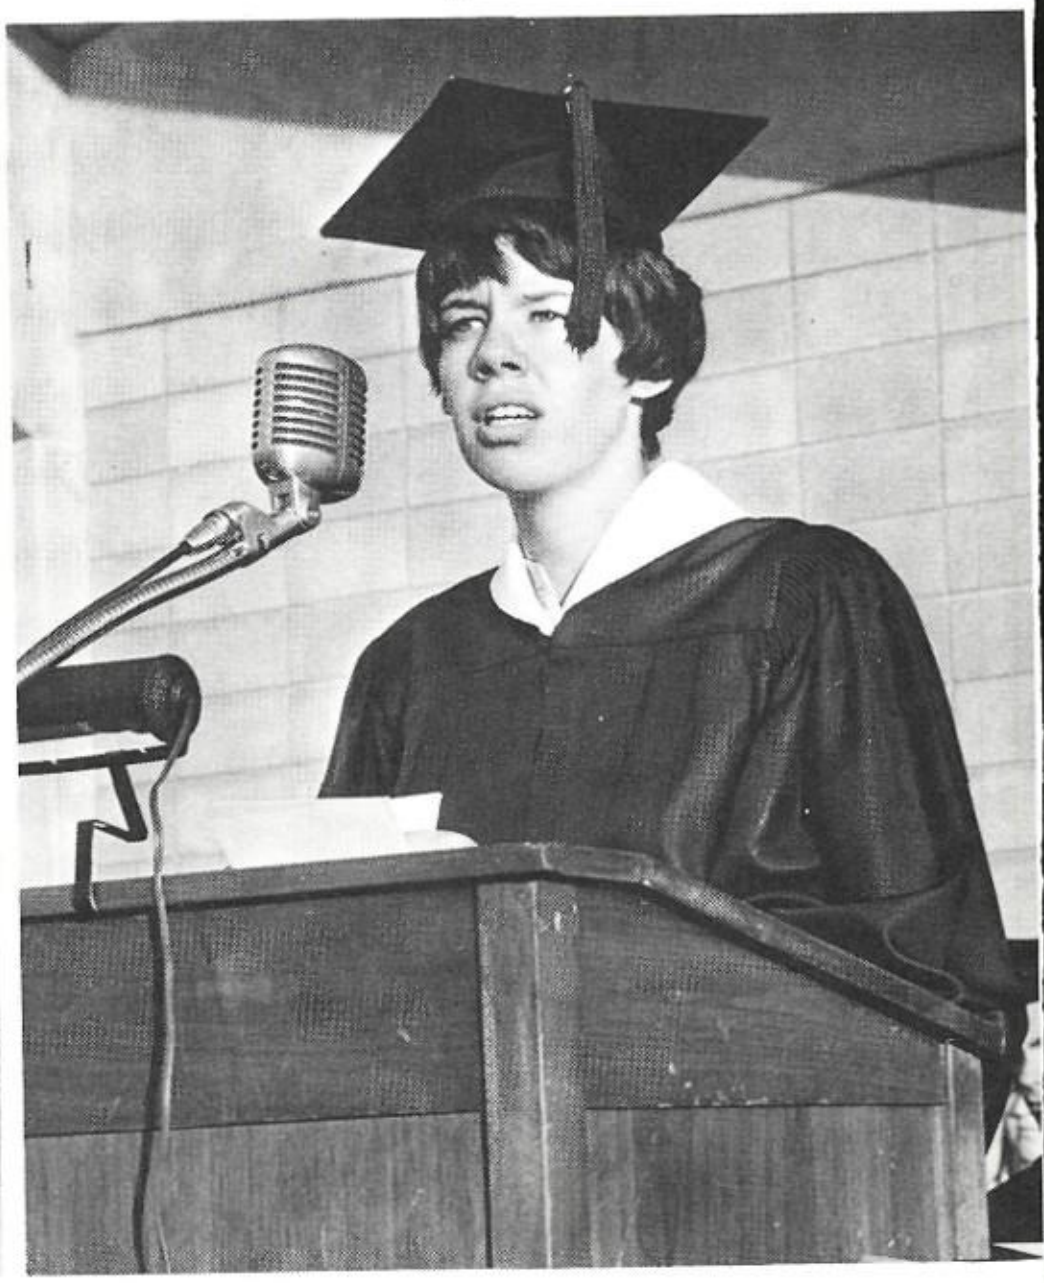
'66

May Our Hearts B



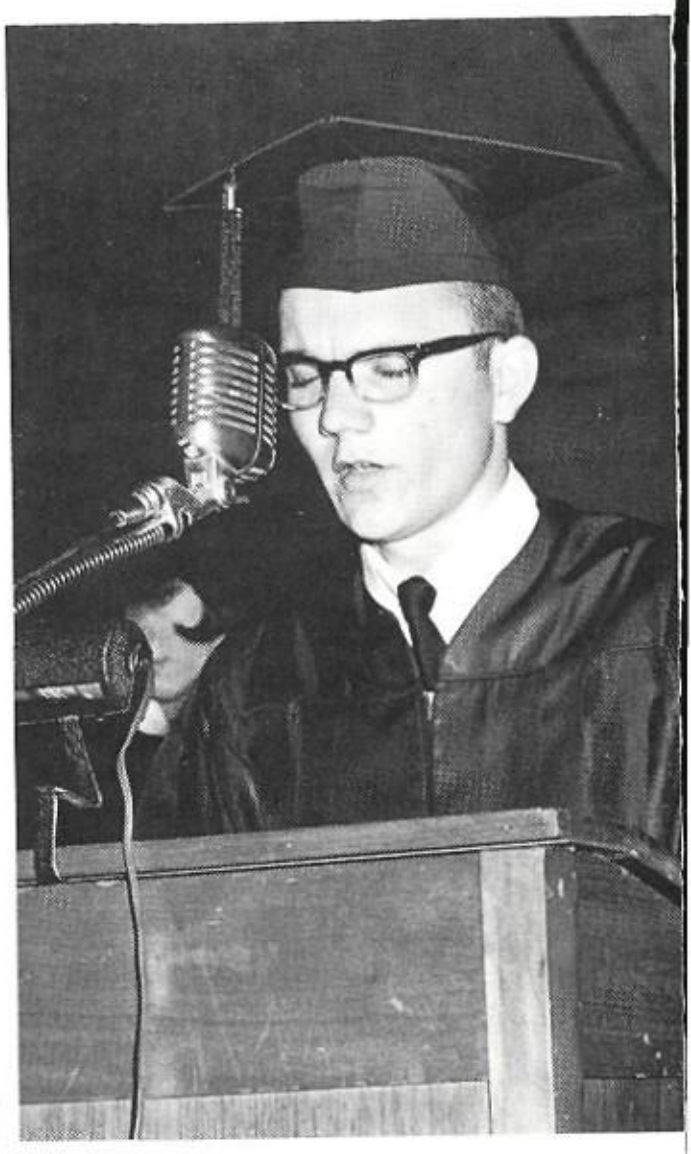
MIKE HOPKINS encourages seniors to be truthful to themselves and others.



"ONE of the key factors contributing to progress is thoughtfulness," said CAROL WERNECK.

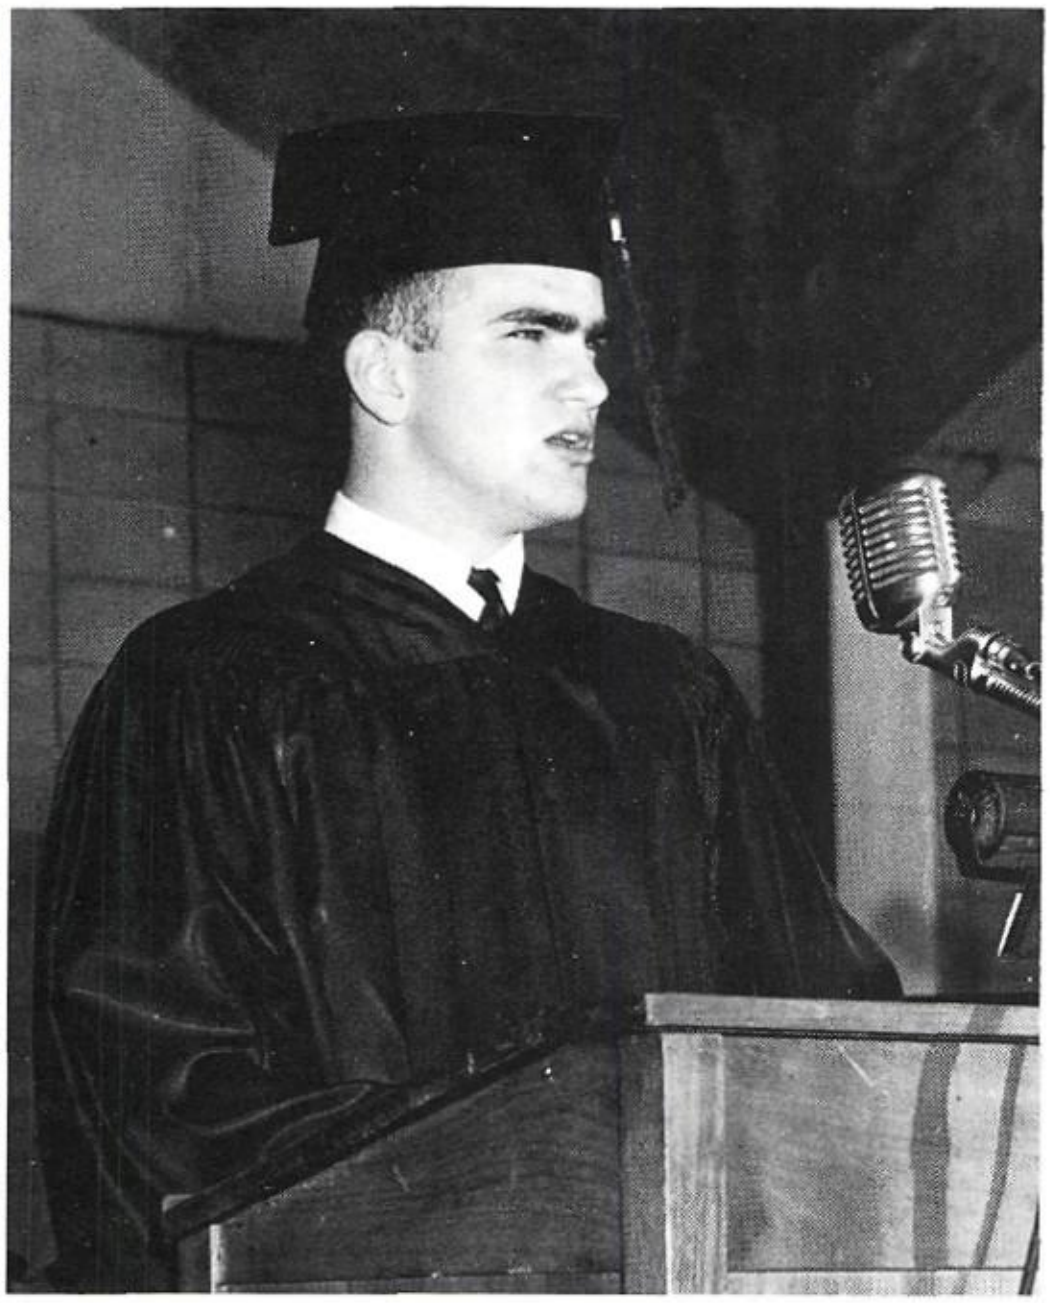
SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT DEIDRE HARBER presides over graduation and introduces the speakers.

JUDY MATTHEWS gives the invocation.

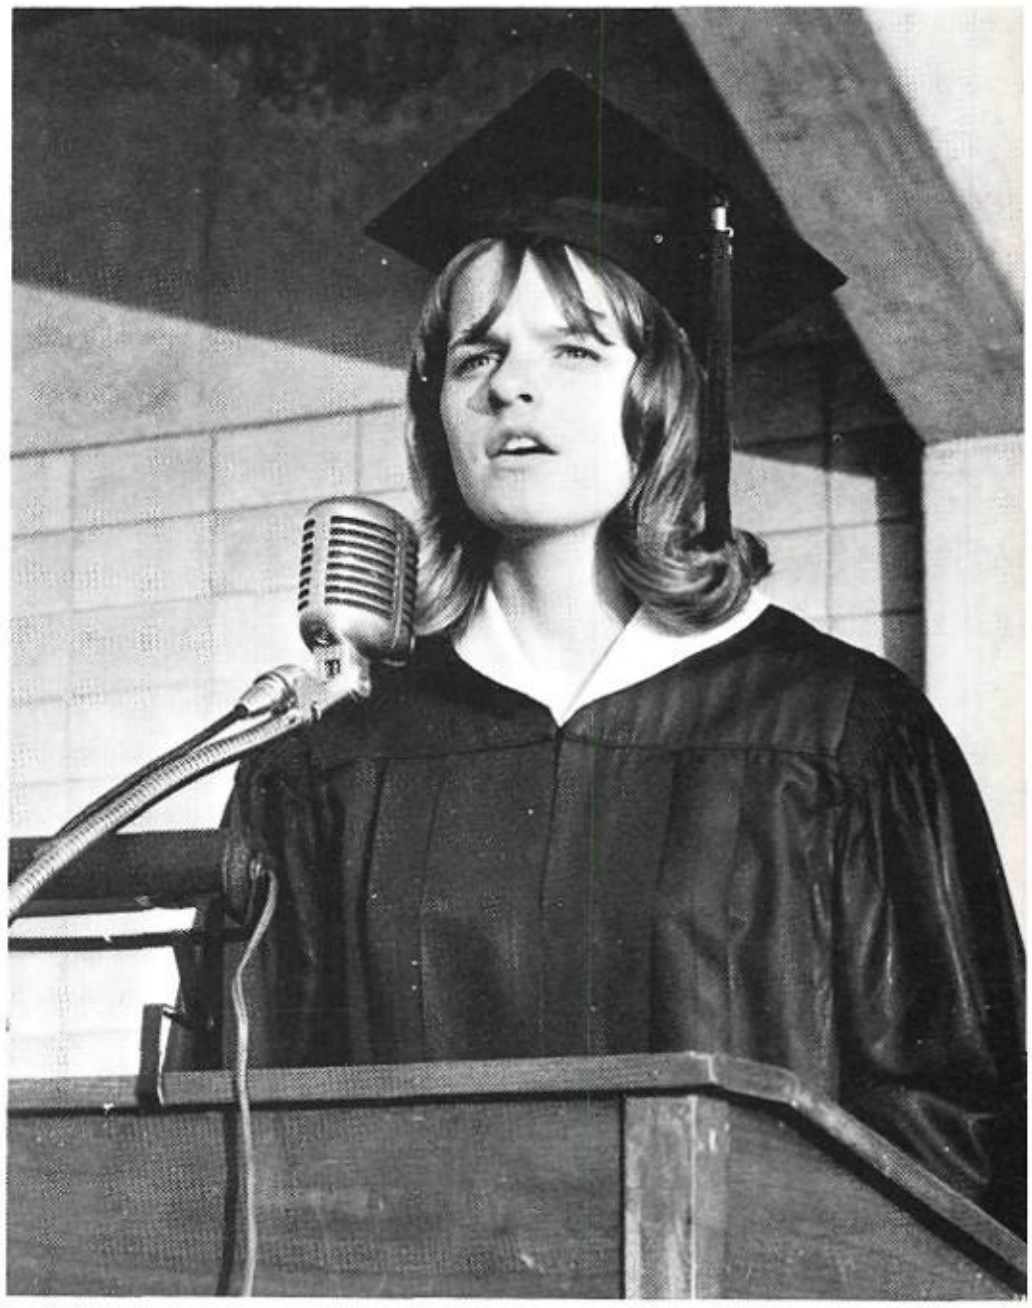


EUGENE HITT closes the commencement exercises with the benediction.

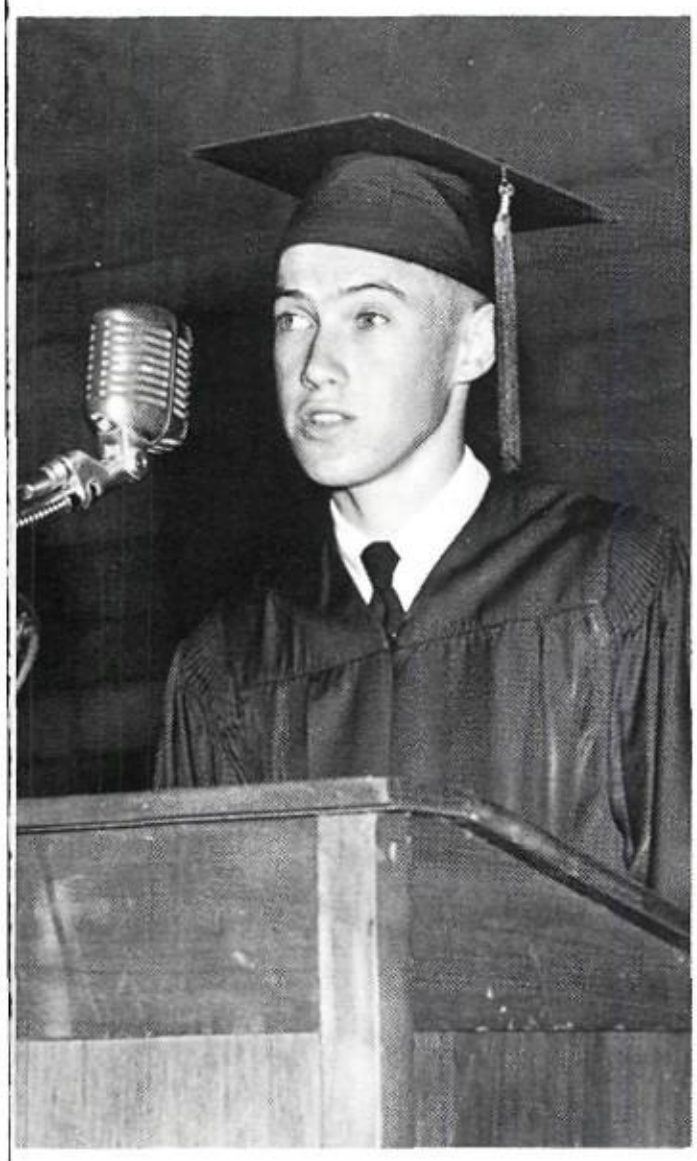
Truthful, Thoughtful, Tireless, Thankful



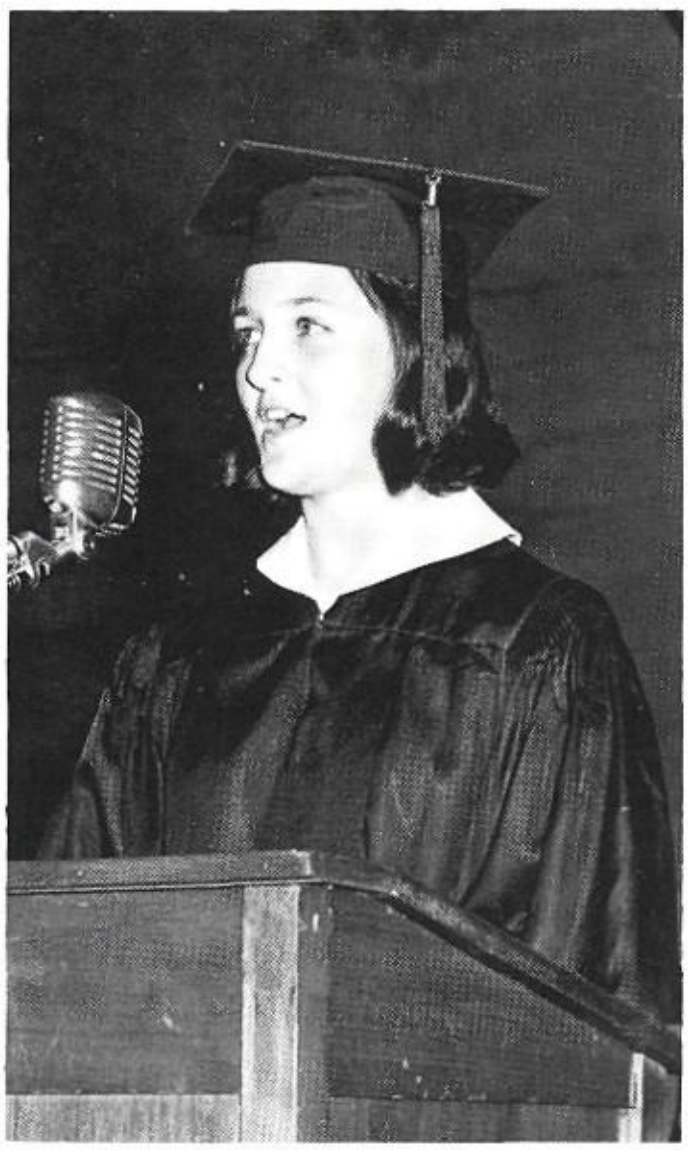
PHIL BARKETT insists that there is no place for lazy people in the world.



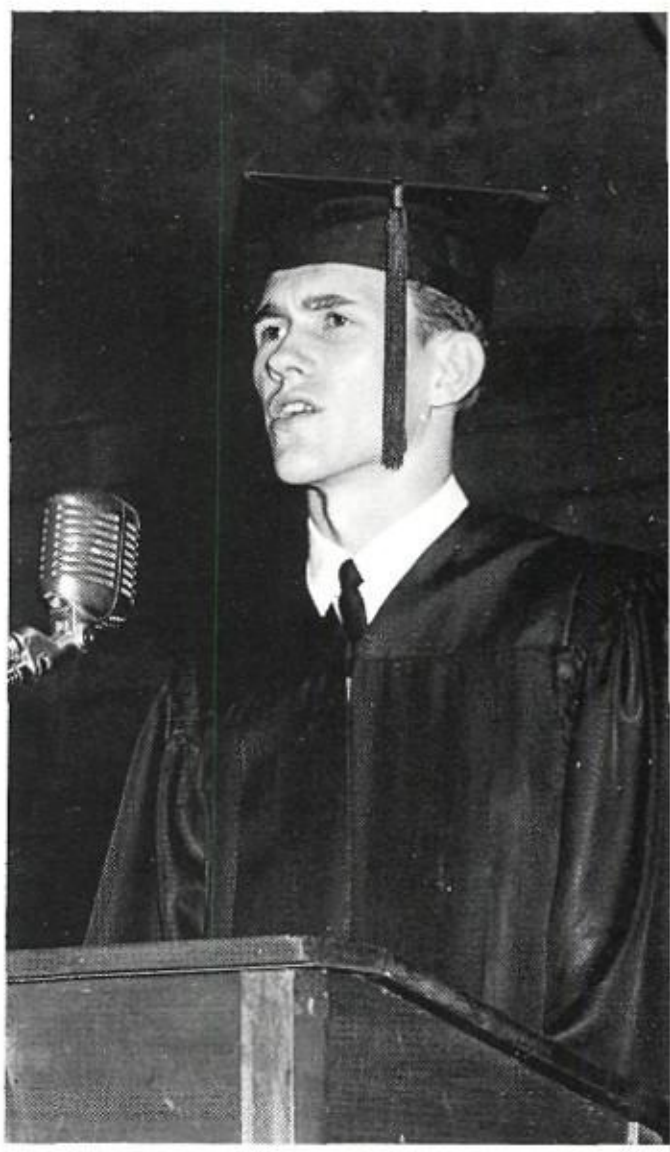
KAY WALTON reminds the class of '66 to be thankful.



GARY WILLIAMS introduces SUPT. LYNN TWITTY.

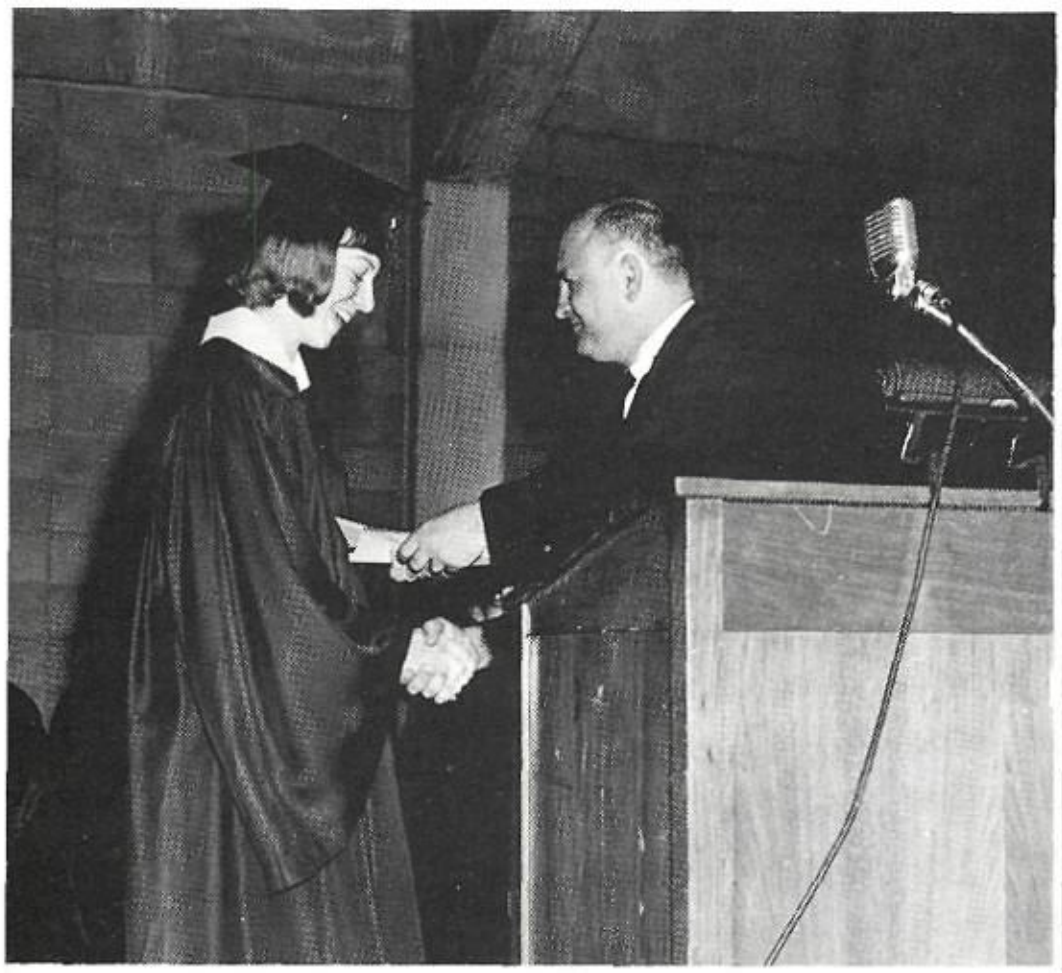


MARTHA BESS introduces Principal ROGER SHERMAN as a "pal to the senior class."

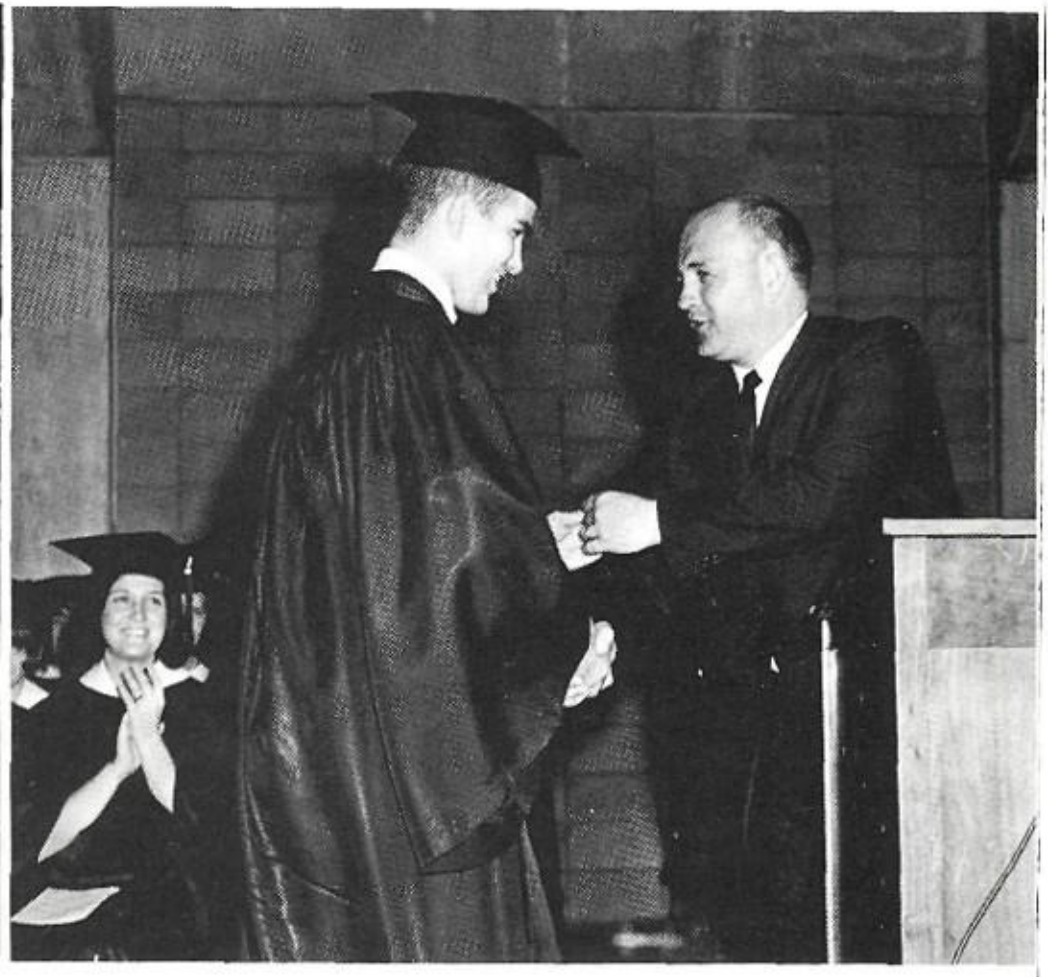


MIKE GUESS introduces president of the board of education DR. A. D. MARTIN.

'66 Commencement Honor



PATTY LEWIS IS NAMED VALEDICTORIAN.

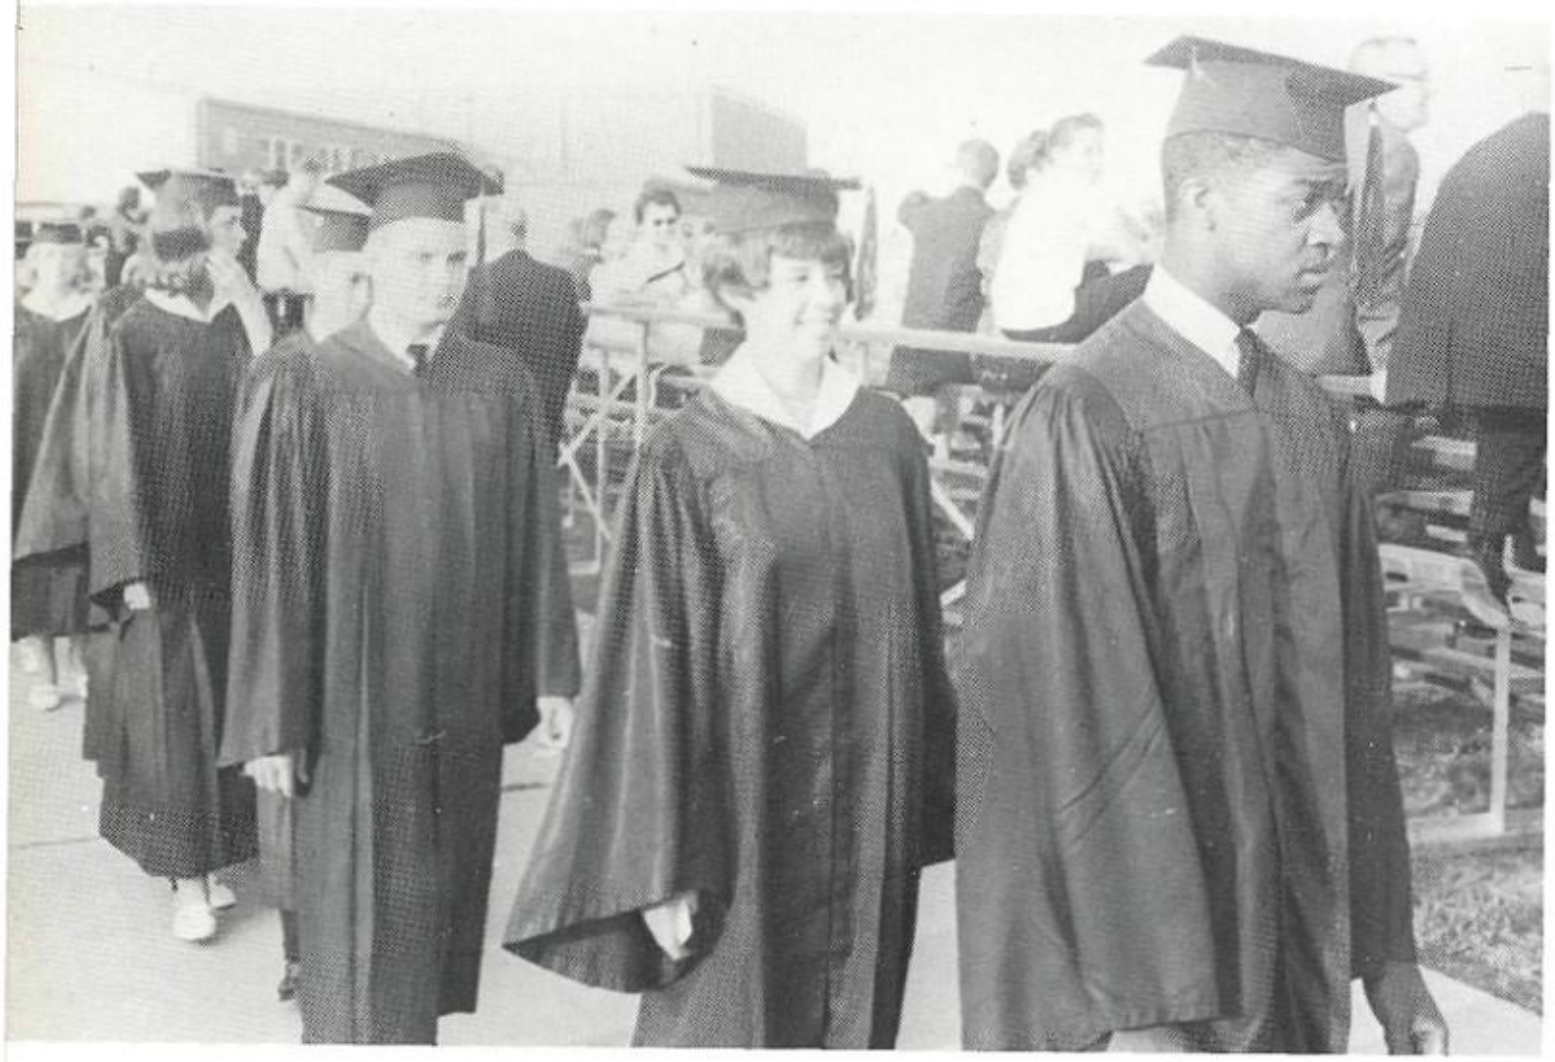


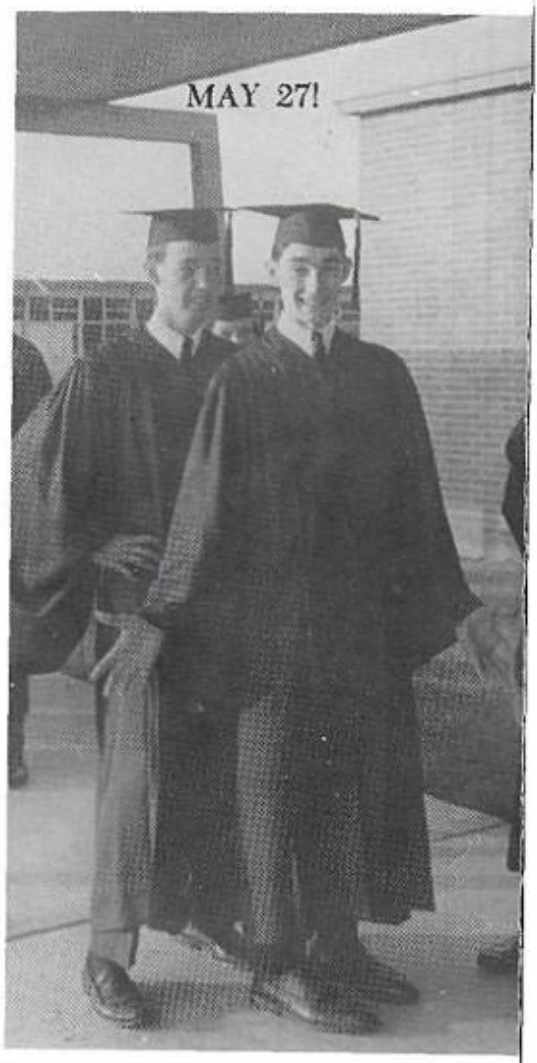
PHIL BARKETT RECEIVES THE TITLE OF SALUTATORIAN.

SIKESTON SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL INNER CHOIR PERFORMS FOR THE LAST TIME AS A GROUP AT THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

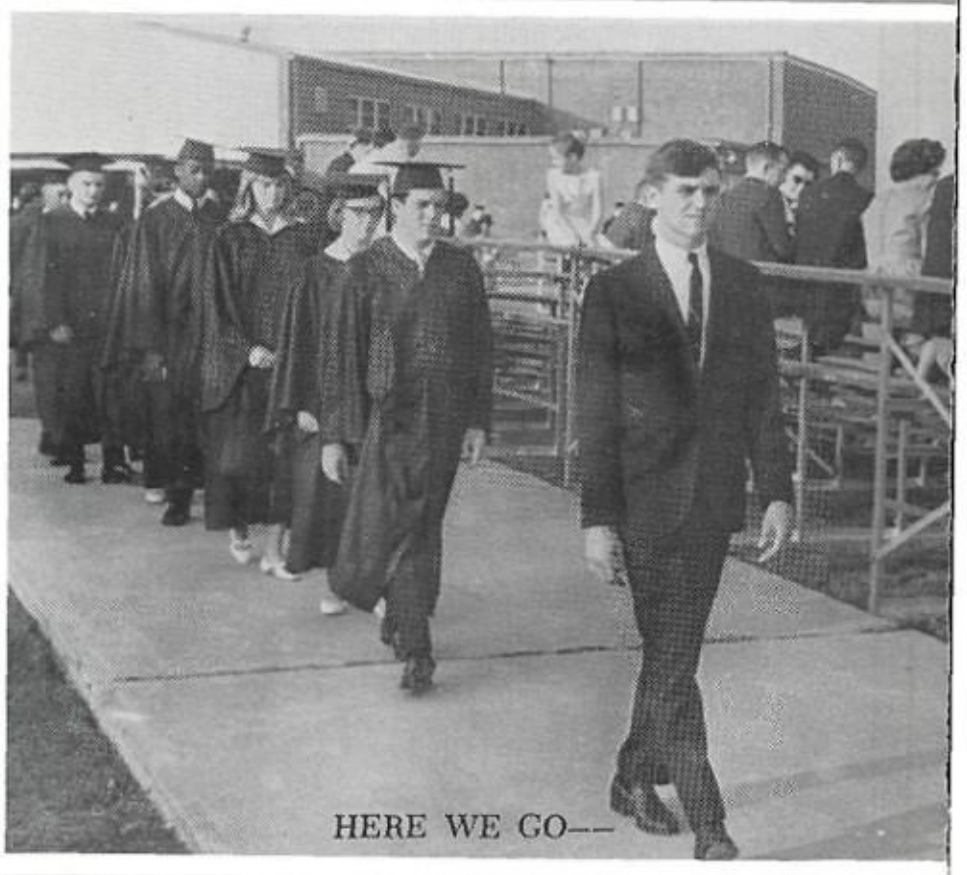
Valedictorian . . . . Salutatorian

Seniors Prepare for 'Final Moment'

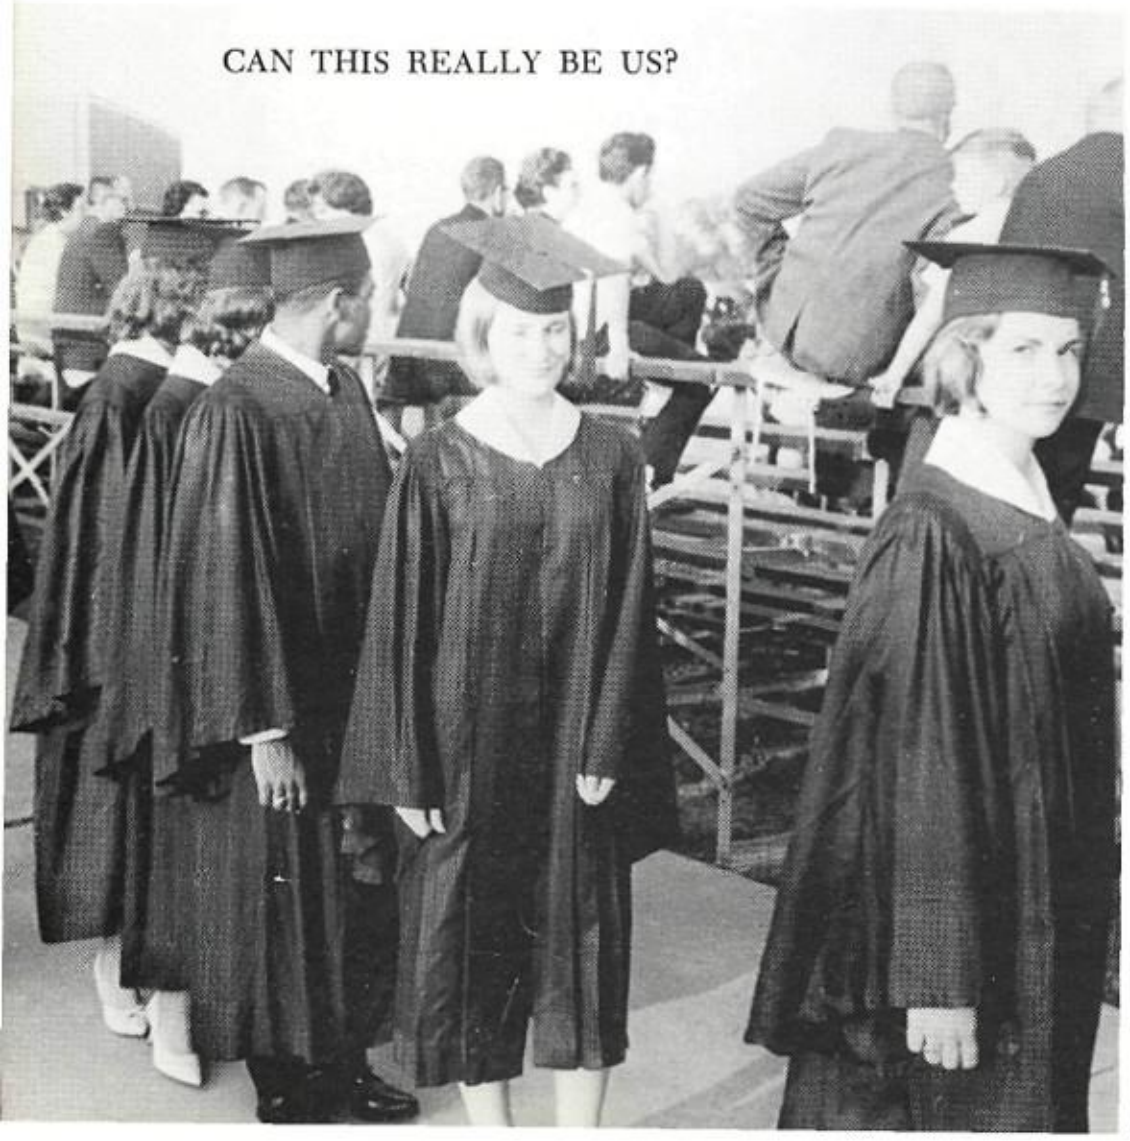


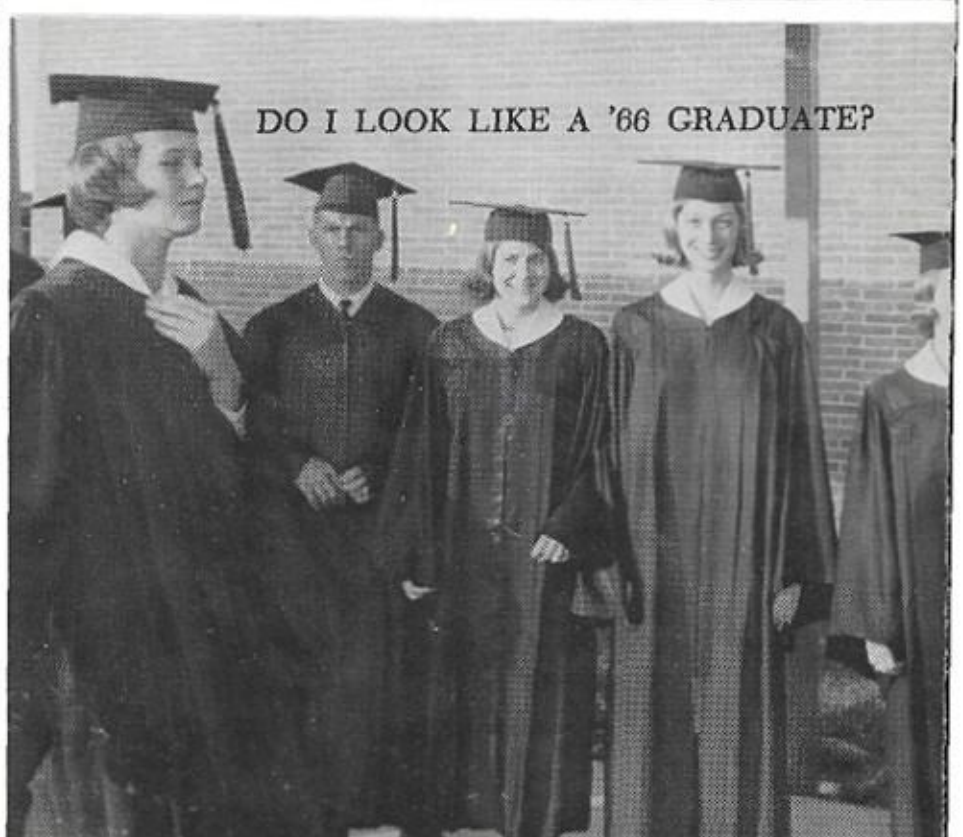


SENIORS make the long-awaited walk to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."



HERE WE GO--





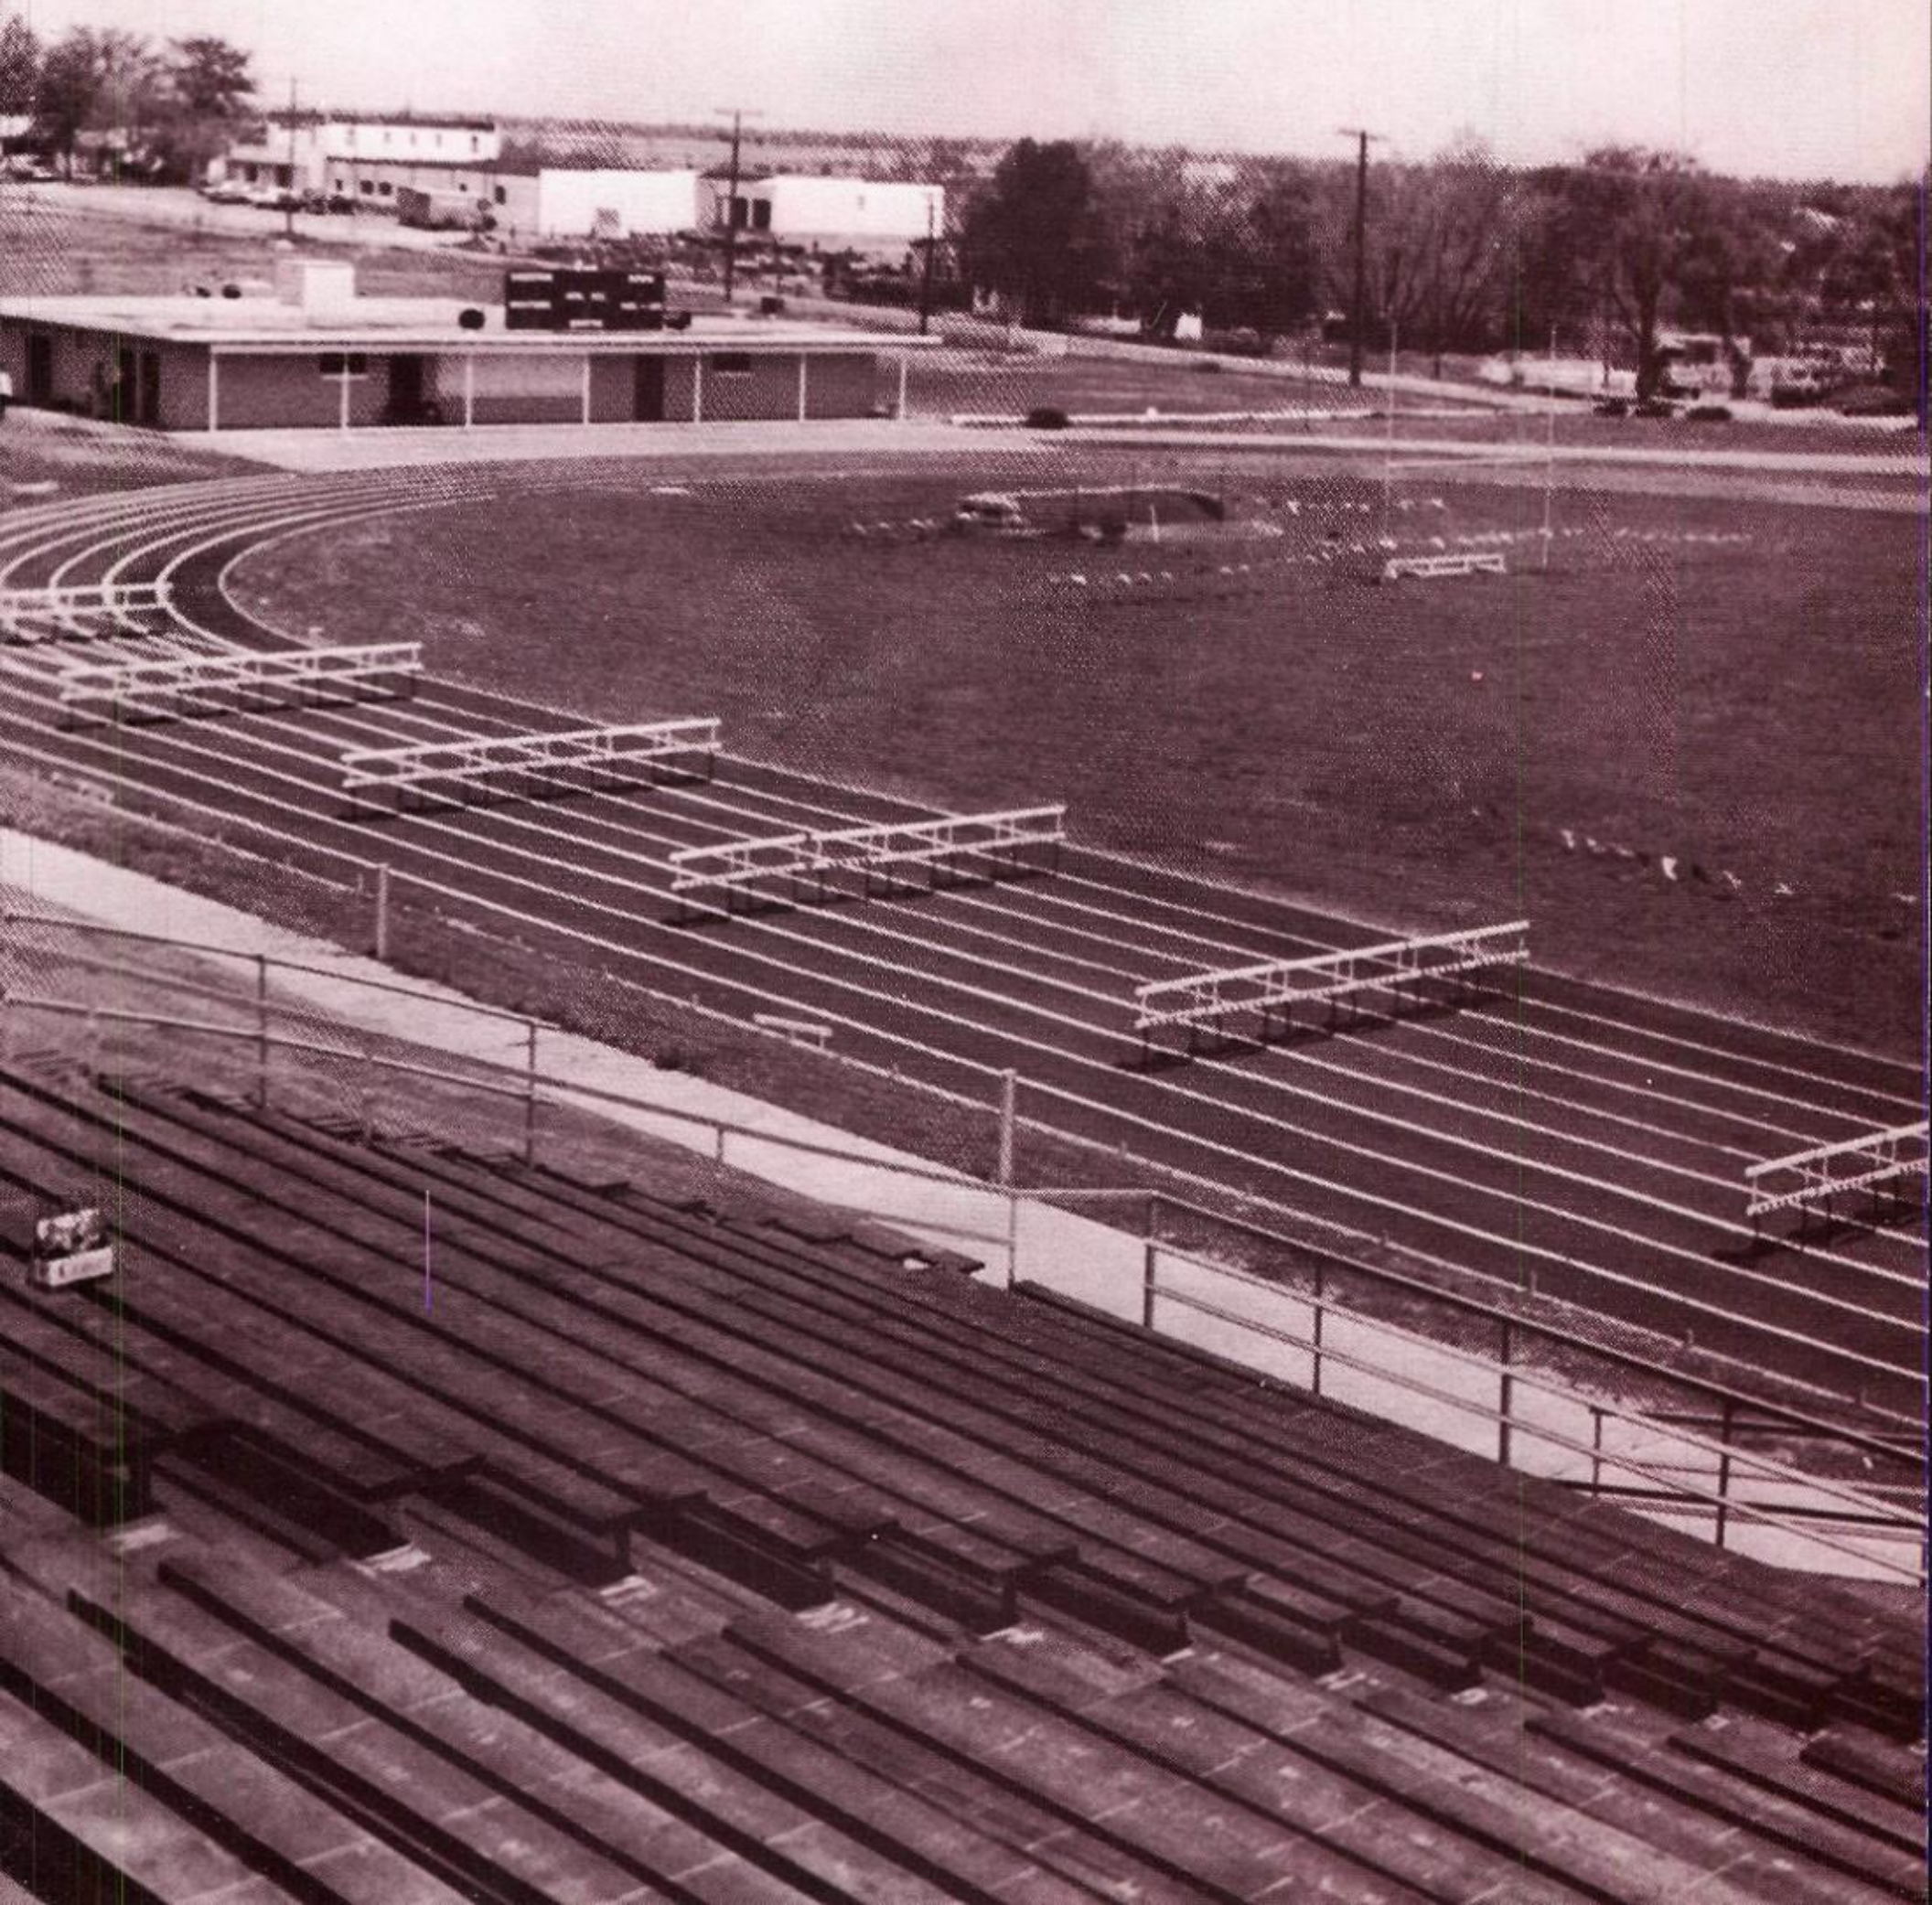
COLLARS
COLLARS

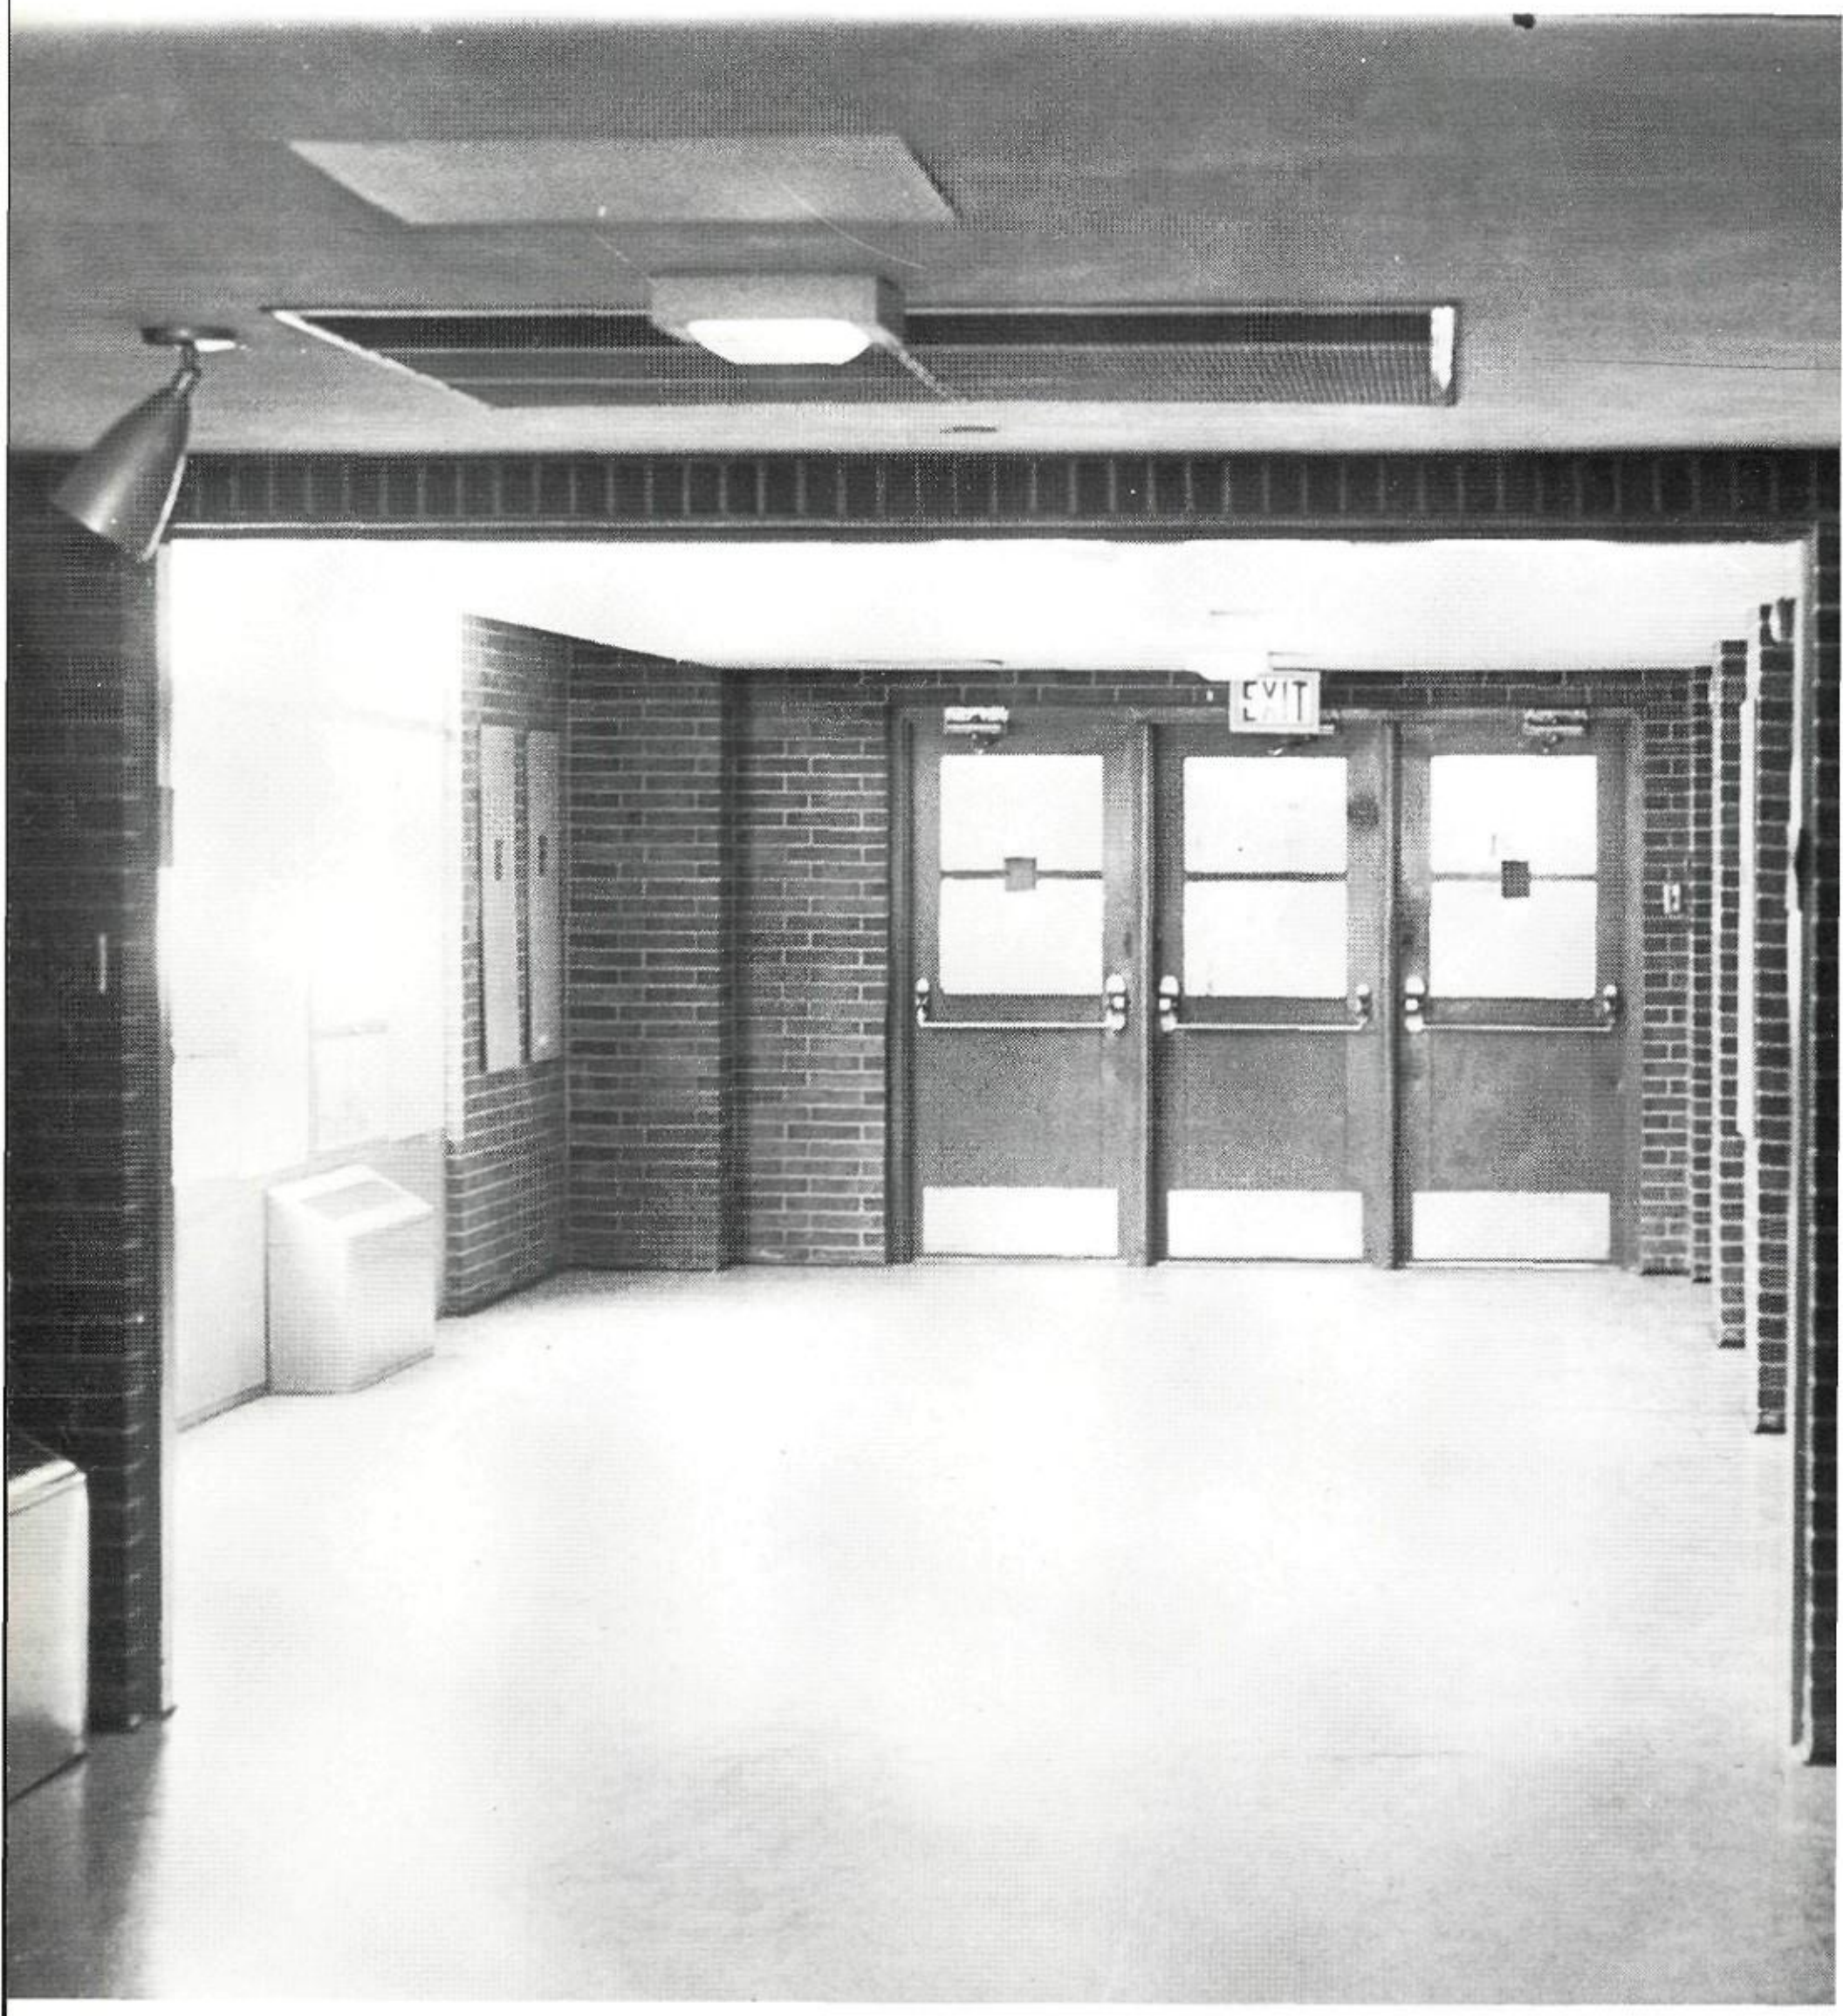
The Red And The Black

There's a school in south Missouri
That is known throughout the state;
She's a school of highest credit;
None other half so great.
We shall never cease to love her
Nor honor shall she lack;
As we go to dear old Sikeston
'Neath the Red and the Black.

Through the four long years of high school,
Midst the scenes we love so well;
While the mystic charms of knowledge
We vainly seek to spell;
Or we win athletic victories
On football or track,
As we go to dear old Sikeston
'Neath the Red and the Black.

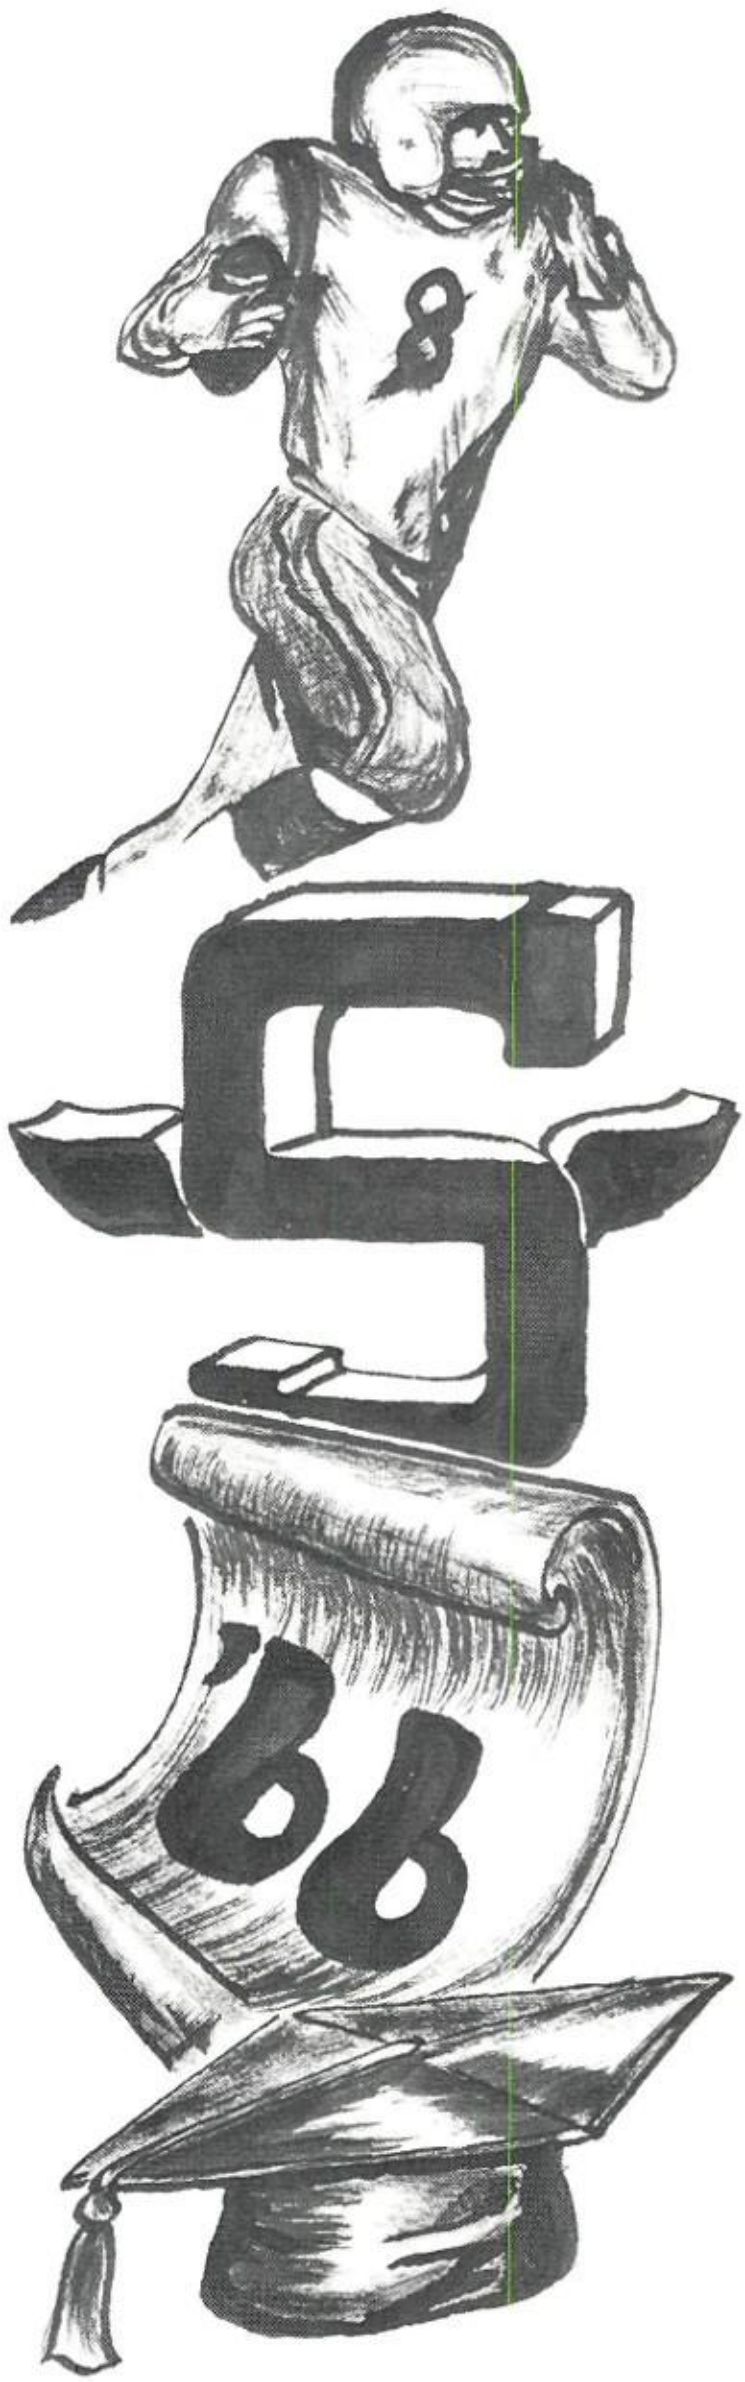
Now in football she's the leader,
Her boys are quick enough;
She's shown the teams of Charleston
And also Poplar Bluff;
She's the best team in Missouri
Nor rooters shall she lack;
As we go to dear old Sikeston
'Neath the Red and the Black.





Silence Walks Alone

To The Seniors



The halls once were filled with noise
Offered by sophisticated girls and boys,
Now the silence walks them alone
Because the seniors are gone.

An empty field is lying there
A really sad sight for we who care,
We remember trips into the end zone
Yet, now the seniors are gone.

The lonely diamond, the deserted track
The living spirit we'll never lack,
The Red and Black, our special song
But now the seniors are gone.

They'll remember the class of '66
We're the class who really clicks,
And we were the ones who got our kicks
Though now - - - - - - the SENIORS are gone.
